

CDG Promotes Kim Belanger to Vice President of Finance and Human Resources

CHAMPAIGN, IL – Communications Data Group, Inc. (CDG) is pleased to announce the recent promotion of Kim Belanger to Vice President of Finance and Human Resources. As Vice President of Finance and Human Resources, Ms. Belanger will be responsible for overseeing the accounting operations of the company, producing financial reports, maintaining accounting records, interviewing and hiring staff, enforcing company policies and practices, and administering pay, benefits, and leave. In making this announcement, Dewaine Wilson, CDG’s CFO, stated that, “Kim has been instrumental to CDG’s success in her position as Assistant CFO, and we believe that as Vice President of Finance and Human Resources she will continue to help us develop our HR support tools and services and increase our financial health and preparedness.”

Kim Belanger initially served as Controller at CDG from 2008-2010 and rejoined CDG in 2017 as Assistant CFO. Kim has extensive experience in financial accounting and auditing, budgeting, forecasting, and development of best financial practices.
